Wanted: A Home for the Holidays

Here we are, hurtling through space on this tiny, jewel-like planet, and with our feet planted firmly on the ground we get to witness the rising of the sun—again. Just when it seems the anxiety and fear blanketing the earth will suffocate us all—the sun comes out again. If ever there was a time to bring every cell of your being to focused attention on what really matters, it's now. Whatever is in your power to do to make life better for others, now is the time. Every action arising from a good heart and a good mind is limitless in its impact.

Thirty years of stagnant wages for working families and an increased cost of living have taken their toll. A huge structural gap has opened up in our economy. And into that chasm are falling record numbers of families who can no longer support their families without government assistance. This is not inevitable, change is possible.

And because you keep showing up for us, we can keep showing up for our struggling neighbors. Together we will make our way through the chaos and fear into the sunlight.

One of your neighbors is Christina, a working, single mom who spent 2 ½ years in a motel room until a subsidy became available for her family. She sobbed when we told her that her housing had come through—she had been facing her third Christmas in the motel and was so discouraged. She and her two young children now have a home for the holidays. When her family is stable we will work with Christina to obtain the education and job training she needs to increase her income.

Thirty years of stagnant wages for working families and an increased cost of living have taken their toll.

We can keep showing up for the Christinas' of the world because you keep showing up for us. In all the wonderful ways you express your love, you are the sunrise. Never have you been more needed.

NSMC's Partnership = Success

North Shore Medical Center has partnered with Wellspring for 12 years to help us train low-income women and men as medical administrative assistants in our MediClerk program. The program has an excellent 86% job placement rate—and opens the door to opportunity for our students who have often been unemployed for long periods of time before they enroll. North Shore Medical Center provides us with classroom space, job shadows and internships so our students can gain valuable on-the-job experience.

Recognizing their outstanding leadership, practical help, and dedication to our students' success, Wellspring has nominated North Shore Medical Center for the Boston Business Journal's Corporate Citizenship Award. Thank you to all at NSMC who make it possible for our students to succeed—from our job shadow and internship hosts to Art Bowes, Sr. V.P. of Human Resources and his team.

Last year Wellspring's Board of Trustees committed to pursuing accreditation for the MediClerk program. Accreditation will help us to access financial aid for our students and provide a financial foundation that will enable us to expand our work and consider other job training programs. MediClerk is poised to make a leap!

"The day that made everything fall into place was the call saying I was accepted into MediClerk. I can only say good things about this program. Everyone truly devotes their time and energy to going above and beyond, making sure you succeed. I'm proud to say I'm a graduate of the MediClerk program that thrives on people's success for the future."

HOLLY BELIVEAU (OCTOBER CLASS)

MediClerk students had a successful afternoon of shopping during J. Jill's Styling Party at the MarketStreet Lynnfield store. Thank you J. Jill for your ongoing support and generosity.

WELLSPRING FAMILY NEWS SPOTLIGHT

When Roger entered Wellspring's eight week Adult Learning Initiative program (ALI) last spring, he possessed 28 college credits from the early 1990s, limited computer skills and a tenacious desire to finish what he started.

Once enrolled, he didn't miss a class. "When I got stuck, they helped me. The teachers were great. I love them all." Roger is now matriculated full time at North Shore Community College and back on track to get his degree. Congratulations, Roger!

Intern and reading specialist, Ashby Conway, student, Betty, and volunteer, Chuck Everett meet at Wellspring's English Language Learning Center at the Sawyer Free Public Library.

Wellspring's English Language Learning Center at the Sawyer Free Library is growing to meet the needs of our students. To complement the strong conversational skills our students gain at the Center already, an innovative curriculum was introduced in October to help in the development of their reading comprehension and writing skills.

Wellspring is also supporting two other volunteer driven ELL programs. There are approximately 20 volunteer tutors who are working at the Danvers motel housing the homeless families we are working with. These tutors are meeting with both children and parents. Many thanks to volunteers Jean Koulack-Young and Sharon Marie Clark for co-leading that initiative.

A special thanks to volunteer ELL teacher, Michele Harrison, who is piloting an ELL class in partnership with Gloucester Housing Authority on site at the Veteran's Way Community Center.

If you are interested in volunteering as a tutor at any of our sites please contact Mary Hardwick, mhardwick@wellspringhouse.org, or call (978) 281-3221 x300.

"Santa's elves at work: Manchester Police Department and Fire Department raised funds and collected toys for Wellspring's Holiday Store: 1st Row: Paramedic Bob Cavender, Officer Kevin Cleary; 2nd Row: Officer Ryan Machain, Paramedic Jon McDiarmid, Lieutenant Todd Fitzgerald, Wellspring's Hospitality Manager, Mary Hardwick, Lisa Biggar of the First Baptist Church of Manchester, Manchester Police Chief Glen Mckiel, and Manchester Fire Chief Glen Rogers."

Every parent wants their child to enjoy the magic of the Holidays. Wellspring's Holiday Store was created so that parents could ensure that their children were cared for AND the rent and utility bills are paid. Your gifts keep the joy flowing. Thank you!

We expect that 750 children will be shopped for in our Holiday Store this year, including 165 children living in a local motel. Calling all elves!
